Objective

I am looking for a Graphic Design position, to allow me to develop professionally, putting my skills and creativity to good use. I am very eager and motivated to dedicate my time and effort towards my work.

Experience

Freelancer

Graphic Designer
2021 - Present

Working as a freelancer I had multiple projects including logos, posters and creating the brand identities and websites.

Graphic Designer

Design Agency
April 2022 - March 2023

I had worked as a Graphic Designer at a Design Agency. I had been involved in various projects, ranging from brand and identity design to web and print design. While working here, I had further developed my communication skills and have learned the importance of working in a team.

Education

Florence Institute of Design International - FIDI

January 2023 - May 2023

Semester Graphic Design Diploma

Learning about the different principles of design, typography, product design drawing and graphic design.

Graphic Design Specialization

December 2021 - February 2022

Program in Graphic Design - California Institute of the Arts

During this course I got a deeper understanding of the graphic design fundamentals, having to create design projects throughout the modules, ending with a branding project. For the final project, I imagined a gin company and created the backstory, company vision and branding from the ground up.

Mihai Eminescu National College Satu Mare, Romania

September 2016 - July 2020

Mathematics and Computer Science

Worked together with my headteacher on the class magazine, designing the cover.
